

CREIGHTON PREP

Directed Studies Course Description:

Directed Studies is a year long course for freshmen only. This course assists in preparing freshmen to handle the rigors of a college preparatory curriculum. Topics covered are organization, time management, study habits and strategies, test taking strategies, self-advocacy, vocabulary development, reading comprehension and an introduction to critical thinking skills.